Time: 3 hours

Maximum Marks: 75

PART A

1	a. ecstatic b. Della was happy on seeing the gift that Jim bought for her because it was the hair comb that she always desired to have. She turned sad and started crying because she had cut and sold her hair to buy a gift for Jim. Now she did not have the hair to put the hair comb on. c. Though the gifts that Della and Jim give each other – silver chain and the hair comb are practically useless to them for the time being – the real gift they give each other is true love for each other – both of them sacrifice the things that they value most in life to buy the other one what he/she loves – True, selfless love is the most valuable, precious gift any one can give to another person – they are the gift of the Magi –	1 1+1 2 +1
2	a. piece b. The peasants understood that the mother’s suffering now will reduce the sins of her previous birth – reduce the sufferings of her coming births – reduce the weight of evil in this unreal world c. Peasants – superstitious- sees scorpion as an Evil one – believes if the scorpion moves its poison will move in the mother’s blood - justifies the incident of scorpion bite through an array of superstitious beliefs – the scorpion bite is to reduce the sins of her previous birth – to reduce the sufferings of her coming births – to balance the whole of evil in this unreal world – they do nothing other than sitting around the mother with the peace of understanding on each face- Father – on the other hand – sceptic, rationalist, tries every herb, powder and	1 2 3

	mixture to reduce the mother's pain – even puts fire to the bitten toe – but does not take a practical step like seeking medical help – all his efforts are also in vain- Son- a silent passive spectator – indifferent, mother – epitome of selfless motherly love- she thanks God that the scorpion bit only her and spared her children.
3	a. forest b. Decides to continue his journey even though he was tempted to stay back by the enchanting beauty of the snowy woods– he has promises to keep, responsibilities to fulfill and miles to go before he sleeps. c. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The traveller's journey– journey of life • Traveller – every one who undertakes the journey called life • Snowy evening – the old age with its gloom and weaknesses • The enchanting woods – peace and tranquility one craves for in old age – the distractions/ temptations in life which tempt one to succumb. • Promises – duties and responsibilities that one must fulfill. The traveller's choice to resume the journey reflects the fact that life has to be continued however much one wants to succumb to temptations and the wish to take rest – there are more to life than this – there are duties to fulfill/ promises to keep to oneself and to others. a.	1 2 3
4	a. Simile. b. Attractive colour scheme – suitable to create the mystery around an astrologer – sandal paste on forehead – the red of the vermilion – the sacred ash – dark whiskers – intense eyes – saffron turban – the background where light and shadows criss-cross c. The astrologer was about to wind up his business for the day – sees a man standing near – identifies a prospective customer – invites to talk to the astrologer – the man reluctant at first – bargains – the astrologer sees the man's face in the light of the cheroot – decides to withdraw – the customer does not agree – the astrologer reads the stranger's palms and starts saying the facts of his life that astonishes the stranger – stabbed by a knife- pushed into the well – left to die – the stranger adds that he would have died had he not been seen by some passerby– he wanted to know if he would be able to find the man who tried to kill him – crushed under a lorry – calls his name 'Guru Nayak' and advices him not to travel south again at all – warns of grave danger to his life if he does so – the stranger goes back happy – we learn that it was the astrologer himself who had stabbed the stranger and pushed him into the well – he is the man that the stranger is searching for – the burden of guilt lifted from the astrologer's mind(3)	1 2 3
